From Tuesday October 21. to Saturday October 25. 1729.

Dublin-Caſtle, October 15.

THE Speech made by the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellour to Sir Ralph Gore, when the Commons, having unanimouſly choſen him to be their Speaker, preſented him Yeſterday to the Lord-Lieutenant ſeated on the Throne in the Houſe of Peers, for his Excellency's Approbation.

Mr. Chancellour of the Exchequer,

HIS Excellency is extreamly concerned, that the long and faithful Services of the late Speaker ſhould have ſo far impaired his Health at this Time, as to make him decline an Office, which he has filled for many Years with great Honour.

The Publick might have ſuffered very much on this Occaſion, had not the Commons choſe one to ſucceed him, whoſe Integrity and perfect Knowledge in Parliamentary Affairs they had fully experienced: And the Unanimity they have ſhewn in this Election, ought to ſatisfy you, that what you mention of your own Inſufficiency, ariſes only from a modeſt Diffidence, which uſually attends the greateſt Abilities.

Your known and conſtant Affection to His Majeſty and His Royal Family, your Regard to the true Intereſt of the Kingdom, and the Capacity you have already ſhewn in publick Buſineſs, leave no Room to doubt, but you will fill the Chair with Credit and Reputation: And the Eminence and Difficulty of the Poſt which might be a Load on others, will only give you a better Opportunity of ſhewing thoſe great Talents which you are Maſter of, and of exerting them in carrying on more effectually His Majeſty's and the publick Service.

It is therefore His Excellency's Pleaſure to confirm the Choice of the Commons, and to approve of you to be their Speaker.

Kenſington, October 24.

His Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, His Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General, being arrived from the Hague, waited on His Majeſty the 23d Inſtant, and was moſt graciouſly received.

The Hon. Brigadier General Sutton, His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Courts of Caſſel and Wolfenbuttel, being returned from abroad, waited on His Majeſty the 22d Inſtant, and was moſt graciouſly received. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to give him the Command of the Regiment of Foot, late Col. George Groves's.
